Headline:
A dry and chilly night. Some sunshine Thursday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Any showers soon fade away this evening to leave a dry night with lengthy clear spells. Turning chilly under clear skies with a grass frost and fog patches forming in a few spots by dawn. Minimum temperature 1 deg C (34 deg F).

Thursday:
A dry and sunny morning once early fog clears. Staying dry with sunny spells for most, but cloudier for west Cornwall with high cloud then spilling northeastwards through the day. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Sunny spells with variable amounts of cloud on Friday. Sunny spells and perhaps the odd shower on Saturday. Largely dry with sunshine throughout Sunday. Temperatures feeling warm.
